The person who neglects to provide for a "Rainy Day" neglects the first duty. Every practical thinking man realizes that it is a duty he owes to himself and his family to save a portion, however small of his earnings. A saving account opened early in life and systematically kept up, will in time afford the means to grasp business opportunities. It will help to buy a home, provide in time of sickness and insure a competency and the comforts of life in old age. For children no better or acceptable present could be made to a child than a savings account where the money is absolutely safe. BURNED TO GROUND

City Hotel at Jackson Was Totally Destroyed by Fire.

EWEN WAS OWNER

He is the Principal Witness for the Prosecution in the Marcum Case and the Act Believed One of Retaliation.

Louisville, Ky., June 15.—The City hotel at Jackson, Ky., a three-story building, owned by Captain E. J. Ewen, the principal witness against Jett and White, now on trial there for alleged assassination of Lawyer J. B. Marcum, was burned to the ground early Sunday morning. There were fifteen guests in the hotel, but all escaped without injury. There was no insurance on the structure, and the hotel, together with its furnishings and the effects of the guests, is a total loss. The origin of the fire is unknown, but the belief is general that the fire was of incendiary origin.

Captain Ewen had recently put up an addition to the hotel. This was just completed, and was as yet unoccupied. It was in this part of the hotel that the fire was discovered. The town of Jackson has no fire department, and when its citizens were aroused by the firing of pistols and guns, much excitement prevailed. A detachment of militia came on the double quick from their camp across the river and rendered valuable aid in assisting the guests to escape and preventing the flames from spreading. Captain Ewen has been kept at the camp of the militia since he testified last Monday that he saw Curtis and Jett fire the shot which killed Marcum. Nobody was seen to leave the hotel before the fire broke out. It was only three days ago that Jackson was put under martial law. The fire has caused renewed apprehension.

ACT OF INTIMIDATION.

The Fire at Jackson Believed to Have Been Due to This Cause.

Jackson, Ky., June 15.—The burning of Ewen's hotel is not only considered as incendiary, but also as accessory to other acts of intimidation, in connection with the pending trial of those accused of the murder of J. B. Marcum, who was an attorney of contestants for county offices now held by leaders of the faction with which the defendants were identified. It has been openly declared that with the flashing of incendiary warnings, arson will go along with assassination, as disciplinary measures might be needed in Breathitt county. It is now stated that other witnesses for the commonwealth were not property owners, but that the jurors, who are farmers, and witnesses who could not be found when detachments of troops were trying to bring them into court, are property owners. The burning of Ewen's property has not only caused renewed fear for both life and property, but also increased the general doubt of conviction in either of the pending cases.

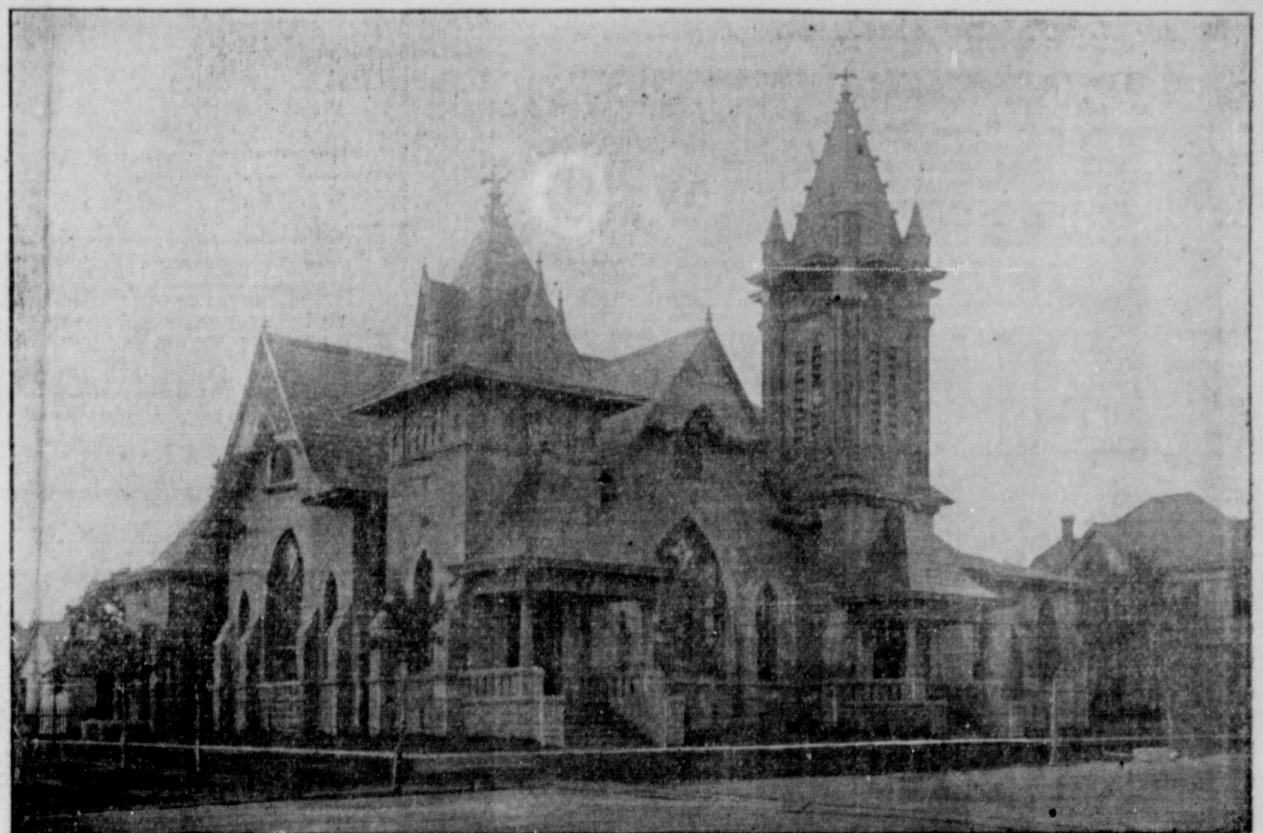

Captain B. J. Ewen was the chief witness for the prosecution in the pending trials of Curtis Jett and Tom White. Ewen is the deputy sheriff who testified that he saw Jett as he advanced with pistol in hand to fire the last shot into Marcum's body as it lay in the court house doorway. Through fears of his own safety he testified that he did not dare to allow Sheriff Callahan and County Judge Hargis to know what he had seen. When it did become known, he was first a prisoner in his home, and then he fled the county until he could have the protection of the troops. His house had been under the guard of a detail of soldiers for several weeks, and as a more stringent precaution against assassination he slept in camp at the provost marshal's headquarters. Several days ago a man visited him at his home and made him a proposition that if he would repudiate what he had related on the witness stand, saying that he testified to what was not true because of the excitement which he was under, he would be given $5000 by a certain prominent citizen, and that if he did not accept this offer he would be assassinated.

He encouraged his visitor to return in the afternoon, and stationed two witnesses in a closet, who overheard a repetition of the proposition and the threat which was accompanied by the tender of five crisp $1000 notes.

No one has doubted that Ewen was in actual danger, but few were prepared for a step as desperate as that which came Sunday, and it is generally believed that the incendiary fire was due to the statement made to State Inspector Hines about the attempted bribery, as well as Ewen's testimony.

Shot from Ambush.

Pensacola, Fla., June 15.—News reaches here of the shooting at Milton of W. P. Johnson, one of the most prominent citizens of that town. Mr. Johnson was going to his home about 9 o'clock when he was fired upon by unknown parties in ambush, a shotgun being used. Four buckshot took effect in the abdomen, and he was at one time reported dead. He is still alive, however, but is in a precarious condition.

DISASTER IN OREGON

Town of Heppner Reported to Have Been Washed Out.

CLOUDBURST CAUSE.

Teager Reports State That Between Three Hundred and Fifty and Five Hundred Persons Have Lost Their Lives.

Arlington, Ore., June 15.—Telephone and telegraphic advices from Heppner, this state, say a great flood of water rushed down upon that place between 6 and 7 o'clock Sunday evening.

A report from Ione, a nearby town, says that it is believed that from 350 to 500 people at Heppner were drowned and that 105 bodies have been recovered. Wires are down and only meagre reports of the disaster have been obtained, which are brought out by messengers.

Heppner is a town of about 1250 inhabitants, seat of Morrow county, Oregon, at the terminus of a branch of the Oregon Railroad and Navigation company. Farming and stock raising are the chief industries. Willow creek, which is given as the cause, is ordinarily a small stream, and early reports indicate that the flood was caused by either one or two cloudbursts.

The Oregon Railroad and Navigation company received word that the depot at Heppner was washed out by a cloudburst and many people drowned.

It is believed the loss of life is exaggerated, one report saying town has only 200 people. Village of Lexington is also reported washed away. Oregon Railroad and Navigation company has sent a relief train.

EVENED UP SCORES.

Killed Farmer and Wife Because Could Not Court the Daughter.

Chicago, June 15.—A dispatch to the Tribune from Pittsfield, Ill., says: Fred Mink, twenty-one years old, shot and killed Newton W. Harris, a farmer living near town, and then killed his step-mother. Rage over the refusal of Harris to allow him to pay attentions to his daughter is thought to have inspired one killing, but the death of Mrs. Mink is not explained.

Mink recently returned from the state of Washington. Before leaving home for the west he paid attentions to Beulah, the daughter of Mr. Harris, and his suit had been discouraged by the father. Since his return Mink has declared that he intended to even up scores. Mr. Harris was in his pasture lot Sunday, when Mink crept up behind him. He was armed with a rifle, and from the shelter of the fence he fired on the unsuspecting farmer, who fell. Mink then ran to the prostrate man and shot him four times in the back and side as he lay on the ground.

Alarmed by the firing, Mrs. Harris ran from the house, a short distance away, and started toward her husband. Mink drew a revolver as she approached and fired one shot, missing her. Then he ran from the field and disappeared in the woods near by.

A search was instituted for Mink and a number of people went to his home. Searching an entrance, they discovered the body of Mrs. Mink lying on the floor. She had been shot a number of times and was dead when found.

The citizens organized a strong posse, fully armed, to search for Mink, and at length he was found hiding in a deserted house on the edge of town. As the crowd approached he showed himself at a window and told his pursuers that he would kill the first man that approached the house. He showed his rifle and revolver and fired a shot at one man who tried to run around a corner of the house to get at him from behind.

Depends Upon Cabinet's Personnel.
London, June 15.—The British foreign office received the first news of the election of King Peter from the Associated Press. Officials say that before taking definite action they will await King Peter's assumption of the throne and constitution of the new cabinet. It is frankly admitted that if the new king's cabinet includes those who were in the assassinations it will be impossible for Great Britain to continue diplomatic relations with Serbia. The question of King Peter's enforcement of the punishment of the murderers is left in abeyance.

First Trading on Sunday.

Kansas City, June 15.—The first Sunday trading at the stockyards in the history of the local market prevailed here Sunday, all departments being open. The market was kept open at the request of shippers and feeders close to Kansas City, who have experienced difficulty in obtaining feed at reasonable prices because of the conditions resulting from the recent flood.

The finest and largest strawberries that have come to Bryan this summer were grown in Brazos county. F. W. Yeager of Millican sent them to the Eagle office, and has our warmest thanks for them. A number of these berries measured each, three and a half inches in circumference. They were grown on vines that went through last summer's drouth without irrigation, and this should be conclusive proof that strawberries in their utmost perfection can be grown in this county. P. H. Arrington of Millican is an other successful strawberry grower, and gave Mr. Yeager his start of vines.

THAT MADISON COUNTY ROAD.

The Eagle is requested by leaders in the movement to state that a strong effort will be made today to push to success Judge Board's plan for improving the road to Madison county. Many have subscribed to the fund, but not half the required number. We hope everybody will join in and help to raise the necessary $1000.00. No more important matter has been presented to the people of Bryan in a long time. The money our people have spent for road improvement in the past has been the best investment they have ever made, and the same will be found true in the future.

SHINE-PICO WEDDING.

Married Sunday Night at the Home of the Bride's Mother.

Sunday night at 9:30 o'clock, Rev. Jewell Howard, pastor of the Christian church, officiating, Mr. William Porter Shine of Hortense, Texas, and Miss Alice Pico of this city were happily wedded at the home of the bride's mother.

The decorations were very elaborate and beautiful and included the reception hall, double parlors and dining room. There was an endless variety of pot plants and cut flowers, with festoons of vines and white roses. The marriage was solemnized beneath a large bell suspended from the double doors between the parlors, and congratulations were received beneath a lovely bower in the west room.

Miss Callie Kern was maid of honor and Mr. James Shine, a brother of the groom, was best man. The other attendants were Miss Blanche Shine, sister of the groom, and Mr. Lee George of Sour Lake. Masters Charlie and Willie Lee led the way for the bridal party and little Misses Ira Maud Camp and Louise Caldwell were the flower girls.

The rooms were brilliantly lighted with electric lights and with candles. Mrs. Paul Bradley played the wedding march and during the service the "Flower Song." The bride and her attendants came down the stairway and met the gentlemen at the double doors, the party forming on either side for the ceremony. The bride's dress was of white organdie over taffeta with veil and lilies of the valley.

She carried a shower bouquet of white carnations. The bridesmaids wore white organdie. There were seventy-eight guests registered in the bride's book and a number were present who did not register.

Cream and cake were served and Miss Pearl Kern dispensed punch of delicious flavor.

Mr. and Mrs. Shine left Sunday night for the groom's home accompanied by Miss Shine and Mr. Lee George.

The bride is a daughter of Mrs. J. E. Pico and was reared in Bryan. She is accomplished in music and has many friends whose best wishes go with her. The groom is a son of Dr. and Mrs. Shine of Hortense and a bright young business man of exemplary character.

DR. RANKIN COMING.

The ladies of the Methodist church parsonage and home mission society have been fortunate in securing Dr. Rankin of Dallas for a lecture at the church at 8:15 p. m., Friday June 19. Dr. Rankin's subject will be "Sights and Scenes by Land and Sea," based on what he saw and heard on a recent trip to Europe. Dr. Rankin is an eminent scholar and a finished orator, and made a profound impression on Bryan audiences upon the opening of the new church. A nominal admission of 25 cents will be charged, and tickets are on sale at Parks & Waldrop's, Hunter & Chatham's and Tyler Haswell's. No charge for children under 8 years old. 4-5-6

WAS NIGHT OF TERROR

Inhabitants of Jackson Did Very Little Slumbering.

WITNESSES ARE GONE

Even Is the Only One for the Prosecution Remaining and His Evidence Seems to Have Cost Him Considerable Sum.

Jackson, Ky., June 15.—Interest in the trial of Curtis Jett and Thomas White was secondary to the preliminary hearing of the teamsters of Hargis brothers, arrested by the soldiers on a charge of burning Ewen's hotel Sunday morning, the principal witness of the commonwealth against Jett and White. Although this place has become accustomed to assassinations and to incendiary fires during the feud of the past three years, it never had such a night of terror as that of Sunday night. Many spent a sleepless night of vigilance, not a members of any vigilance committee patrolling the streets, but within their own doors, as many were expecting the torch to be applied to their houses next. Fourteen residences and stores, owned by those known as Cardwell-Cockrell sympathizers, have been burned at Jackson since 1900 and the number of lives lost greatly exceeds that number.

One week ago the trial of Jett and White began. Many witnesses have fled and the commonwealth had to close its case because the witnesses could not be secured. The fate of B. L. Ewen, one of the witnesses who did not run away, shows the apprehensions of the other witnesses were well founded.

This feud-ridden town, the people of which had somewhat shaken off intimidation under martial law, is the same timid place as before the state militia arrived. Since the burning Sunday of the large new hotel of E. J. Ewen, the principal witness against Jett and White, and the rally of the Hargis faction to aid men suspected with having burned it, hopeful citizens shake their heads and say the state can render no relief.

The Ewen family, including seven children, in the military camp presented a pitiable spectacle. Ewen tried to console his heart-broken wife and daughters, but their distress was too great. The two daughters had escaped from the burning hotel in wrappers and the smaller children in their night clothes. Kind-hearted citizens, although feeling that in doing so they were risking their lives and property, have sent them clothing and bedding. They were breakfasted by the soldiers.

The jail Sunday night was under a heavy guard. The prisoners suspected of burning Ewen's hotel are detained in camp. They are kept in the camp guardhouse, manacled so they would have no opportunity of escape. They were greatly frightened during Sunday night, fearing that a mob would release them and that the soldiers would shoot them. Crawford cried during the night repeatedly, "What a fool I am!" It is believed that these men will be released, as the grand jurors are residents of Breathitt county and fear vengeance similar to that wreaked upon Ewen if they indict the men. People of the town are completely intimidated and in greater fear than ever.

Joe Crawford and Ed Tharp were brought before Judge Redwine and testimony heard on the writ of habeas corpus got out for their release by the Hargis people Sunday. Judge Redwine decided to hold them to the grand jury, which has been reconvened.

After the habeas corpus proceedings of Crawford and Tharp, charged with arson, were disposed of, the trial of Jett and White for the assassination of Marcus was called. The prisoners, who have been greatly alarmed over the arrest and detention of Crawford and Tharp on the charge of burning Ewen's hotel, were brought into the court by the militia. The mothers of both the alleged assassins were in court, as was Miss Sarah Hargis, the young daughter of Judge Hargis, who all along has been very attentive to the interests of the prisoners. There is much excitement about the courthouse, and those entering the courtroom are not only searched, but also closely watched.

BRITISH CONCURRED.

John Bull, However, Was Anxious to Remove His Ambassador.

Belgrade, June 15.—The British government first made known its desire to remove British minister from Belgrade, but the latter concurred with the other powers. Ministers, however, will not be considered to have relations with the present Servian regime until the parliament at Belgrade freely expresses its will.

The French foreign office considered that the skupschtina's selection of Prince Peter Karageorgevitch as king is practically certain, so the agreement of the powers to accept the decision of the skupschtina appears to be assured in advance of the powers' recognition of King Peter. Officials say the agreement did not include any regulations as to the punishment of parties responsible for assassinations.

Slew His Father.

Eastman, Ga., June 15.—Dr. T. J. Buchanan of Eastman, whose brother is a member of the legislature, was shot and instantly killed by his son, Ogletree. The father had seized a pistol and threatened to kill his wife and children. The wife attempted to wrest the weapon from him. The son, hearing the scuffle, ran into the room with a pistol in his hand. It is supposed the discharge of the latter weapon was accidental. The ball passed through the father's heart.

Trains Entering St. Louis Depot.

St. Louis, June 15.—The river has so far receded that eastern roads that had been cut off from St. Louis for one week are now entering the union depot.

PECULIAR PENALTY.

Fine Lacks One Cent of Being One Thousand Dollars.

New York, June 15.—Accused of attempting to extort money from employees in a Newark, N. J., hat factory, David Richman has been fined $999.99 by the Hat Makers' union. About eight months ago similar charges were made against Richman and he was fined $99.99. He was then a foreman in a department in the factory. Although he declared at the time that the charges were trumped up, it is said that he has since then been paying the fine by weekly installment out of his wages. He declared that the new charges are trumped up and that he will not pay the second fine.

Why the union made the fine one cent less instead of an even $1000 none in the case will explain. The complainants asserted before the union that Richman had asked them to pay him $2 a week out of their wages. They also declared that they knew he was receiving money from old men in the shop. Richman, they said, told them that the money was to go to the firm.

PETER CHOSEN.

He Was Unanimous Choice of Both of Servian Houses.

Belgrade, June 15.—Prince Peter Karageorgevitch has been unanimously elected king of Servia by the senate and skupshtina in joint session.

Lieutenant Lazo Jovanovics of the Sixth infantry shot and killed himself

PETER KARAGEORGEVITCH.

Sunday evening because his fellow officers did not permit him to participate in carrying out the plot against the late king and queen.

The provisional government has refused the necessary permission to several Belgrade families who wanted to emigrate, saying that until normal conditions are restored such permits will not be granted.

SHARP FIGHT.

Partisans of Milan and the New King Have a Lively Engagement.

Geneva, June 15.—King Peter received a telegram from Belgrade announcing that a sharp fight had taken place on the streets between partisans of the new king and those of Milan, the legitimized son of King Milan, father of the murdered King Alexander. Young Milan had recently been living at Constantinople. His partisans posted a proclamation on the walls of Belgrade and it was torn down by King Peter's supporters after a free fight.

Ready to Go.

Geneva, June 15.—Prince Peter Karageorgevitch and his cousin, M. Nevadovics, remained in close consultation all Sunday night. Late during that night Prince Peter Karageorgevitch telegraphed to a friend at Vienna asking him if it would be wiser to traverse Vienna secretly or to announce his arrival. Prince Peter is prepared to start for Belgrade immediately upon receipt of the announcement of his election as king.

To Remain at Belgrade.

Paris, June 15.—It is said in official quarters that official actions between the powers regarding their attitude toward Servia have now eventuated in an agreement that ministers of the various powers shall remain in Belgrade in order to look after the current interests of their governments. Each minister is receiving practically identical instructions to recognize the decision of the Servian parliament if the latter has full liberty of action during the choice of a king.

BADLY WANTED.

Incurable and Poisoner of Dogs Increase the Wrath of Numerous People.

New York, June 15.—Armed with shotguns and rifles, farmers and summer residents of Mount Kisco and Newcastle townships, New York, are looking for an incendiary who has set fire to more than a dozen houses and barns and poisoned almost every dog in these two townships since the first of the year. It will go hard with the firebug if they catch him. The town board offered a reward of $1000 for his capture and conviction. No one can positively identify the man, nor even describe him with any degree of accuracy, although he has been seen on several occasions leaving a house or barn, which shortly afterward burst into flames. It is generally believed he is a lunatic. Many valuable dogs belonging to wealthy New York business men have fallen victims to the poisoner.

Four of Them Drowned.

Montreal, June 15.—Pierre Suay, a carter, took his wife and family of three children and a neighbor's child to Bout l'Isle for an outing Sunday. While rowing in a flat-bottomed boat the craft capsized. Suay, his wife and two children were drowned. One of his children and the neighbor's child were saved.

Sherman Bonds Found.

Austin, June 15.—The Sherman bonds have been found and delivered to the comptroller. They were found in the express office.

FALLEN A FOOT.

Conditions at St. Louis and East St. Louis Are Fast Improving.

St. Louis, June 15.—The river has fallen nearly one foot, the government gauge registering 36 feet, 1 inch. The river is receding slowly and according to prediction the danger line, thirty feet, will not be reached for several days.

Proprietors of levee stores expect to open their establishments in a few days.

It was with considerable difficulty, necessitating at times threats of punishment, that the armed guards stationed where the viaduct joins the Eads bridge proper, succeeded in keeping the crowds of sight seers from passing them into the flooded territory of East St. Louis.

At the inquest of Clifford Hanley, the young member of the St. Louis Naval Reserves, who was killed near Belleville Saturday night by alleged levee cutters, was begun by the coroner Sunday. J. S. Bratton, the horseman near whose property the fight took place, was brought from Belleville to East St. Louis to attend the inquest. A number of witnesses were examined but no positive evidence as to who fired the fatal shot was adduced. Bratton was taken back to Belleville and locked up pending action by the coroner who will continue the inquest.

Conditions in East St. Louis are improving the flooded portions south of Broadway and west of the Southern railroad tracks, showing a decided fall in the water since the break in the levee Wednesday morning.
